Introduction

Language is the most powerful tool human beings possess. At the heart of every sentence lies a carefully arranged set of words, each playing a specific role. Just as players in a cricket team have different positions and responsibilities, every word in a sentence has a function — and that function determines its Part of Speech.

■ GRAMMAR RULE

A Part of Speech is a category that defines the role a word plays in a sentence. The same word can belong to different parts of speech depending on how it is used in a sentence.

There are 8 Parts of Speech in English Grammar:

Noun • Pronoun • Verb • Adjective • Adverb • Preposition • Conjunction • Interjection

Why Are Parts of Speech Important?

Understanding Parts of Speech helps you:

- ✓ Construct grammatically correct sentences
- ✓ Identify errors in writing and speech
- ✓ Improve vocabulary and comprehension
- ✓ Score better in exams — grammar sections frequently test POS identification
- ✓ Communicate clearly and confidently

The 8 Parts of Speech at a Glance

Part of Speech	Definition	Example
Noun	Name of a person, place, thing, or idea	Rahul, city, happiness
Pronoun	Word used in place of a noun	he, she, they, it
Verb	Action or state of being	run, is, think, write
Adjective	Describes or modifies a noun/pronoun	tall, blue, three, smart
Adverb	Modifies a verb, adjective, or adverb	quickly, very, here, never
Preposition	Shows relationship between noun and rest	in, on, at, under, with
Conjunction	Joins words, phrases, or clauses	and, but, because, or
Interjection	Expresses emotion; grammatically independent	Wow! Ouch! Hurray!

■ IMPORTANT NOTE

The same word can act as different parts of speech depending on context.

light (Noun) → The light is bright.

light (Verb) → Please light the candle.

light (Adjective) → She carries a light bag.

SECTION 1

Noun

A Noun is a word used as the name of a person, place, animal, thing, quality, action, or idea.

■ FORMULA / STRUCTURE

Structure: Subject + Verb → The noun typically occupies the subject or object position.

Examples: Meena sings. | We visited Delhi. | Courage is admirable.

Types of Nouns

Type of Noun	Definition	Examples	Key Note
Proper Noun	Name of a specific person/place/thing	Gandhi, India, Diwali	Always capitalised
Common Noun	General name for a class of objects	boy, city, festival	Not capitalised
Collective Noun	Name for a group of persons/things	flock, team, bunch	Treated as singular usually
Material Noun	Name of a substance/material	gold, water, wood	Usually uncountable
Abstract Noun	Name of a quality, feeling, or state	honesty, joy, freedom	Cannot be touched
Countable Noun	Can be counted	book, apple, chair	Has plural form
Uncountable Noun	Cannot be counted	milk, air, music	No plural form

Forming the Plural of Nouns

Rule	Change	Example
Most nouns	Add -s	book → books, pen → pens
Ends in -s, -sh, -ch, -x, -z	Add -es	bus → buses, watch → watches
Ends in consonant + y	Change y to i, add -es	city → cities, baby → babies

Rule	Change	Example
Ends in vowel + y	Add -s	boy → boys, key → keys
Ends in -f or -fe	Change f to v, add -es	leaf → leaves, wife → wives
Ends in -o	Add -s or -es	photo → photos, hero → heroes
Irregular nouns	Change internally	man → men, child → children

■ Gender of Nouns

Masculine: boy, king, actor Feminine: girl, queen, actress

Common: student, doctor, teacher (can be male or female)

Neuter: table, city, book (no gender)

✗ COMMON MISTAKE

Abstract nouns cannot be used with 'a/an' when they refer to general qualities.

WRONG: She has a happiness. CORRECT: She is full of happiness.

🔍 EXAM TIP

In exams, you may be asked to identify the type of noun used in a sentence. Always check whether the noun is a specific name (proper), a feeling/idea (abstract), or a group name (collective).

Pronoun

A Pronoun is a word that is used in place of a noun to avoid repetition. The noun it replaces is called its antecedent.

■ FORMULA / STRUCTURE

Riya went to school. She forgot her lunch.

Here, She is the pronoun and Riya is its antecedent.

Types of Pronouns

Type	Use	Examples
Personal	Refer to persons/things	I, we, you, he, she, it, they
Possessive	Show ownership	my, our, your, his, her, its, their
Reflexive	Refer back to the subject	myself, yourself, himself, themselves
Emphatic	Emphasise the noun/pronoun	I myself did it.
Demonstrative	Point to specific things	this, that, these, those
Interrogative	Used to ask questions	who, whom, what, which, whose
Relative	Link clauses; refer to a noun	who, whom, whose, which, that
Indefinite	Refer to non-specific persons/things	anyone, everyone, nobody, each
Reciprocal	Express mutual action	each other, one another

Personal Pronoun Case Chart

Person	Subjective	Objective	Possessive Adj.	Possessive Pron.	Reflexive
1st Singular	I	me	my	mine	myself
2nd Singular	you	you	your	yours	yourself
3rd M/Sing.	he	him	his	his	himself
3rd F/Sing.	she	her	her	hers	herself
3rd Neut./Sing.	it	it	its	its	itself
1st Plural	we	us	our	ours	ourselves
2nd Plural	you	you	your	yours	yourselves
3rd Plural	they	them	their	theirs	themselves

✗ COMMON MISTAKE

WRONG: Between you and I, this is wrong. CORRECT: Between you and me ...

Use the objective case (me/him/her/them) after prepositions.

WRONG: Him and me went to school. CORRECT: He and I went to school.

🔍 EXAM TIP

A Reflexive pronoun is used only when the subject and object are the same: She hurt herself.

An Emphatic pronoun stresses the subject but is not the object: He himself solved the problem.

SECTION 3

Verb

A Verb is a word that expresses an action, occurrence, or state of being. Every complete sentence must contain at least one verb.

■ FORMULA / STRUCTURE

S + V + O (Subject + Verb + Object)

The student writes an essay. | She is happy. | Birds sing.

Types of Verbs

Type	Definition	Examples
Action Verb	Expresses physical or mental action	run, think, eat, write
Linking Verb	Connects subject to complement	is, am, are, was, seem, become
Helping Verb	Assists the main verb	has, have, will, shall, do, did
Transitive	Requires an object to complete meaning	She reads a book .
Intransitive	Does not need an object	He laughed. Birds fly.
Modal Verb	Expresses ability/possibility/duty	can, could, may, might, must, should
Phrasal Verb	Verb + preposition/adverb	give up, look after, run into

Verb Tense at a Glance

Tense	Structure	Example
Simple Present	V1 / V1+s	She sings every day.
Present Cont.	am/is/are + V-ing	She is singing now.
Present Perf.	has/have + V3	She has sung twice.
Simple Past	V2	She sang yesterday.

Past Cont.	was/were + V-ing	She was singing when I arrived.
Past Perfect	had + V3	She had sung before I came.
Simple Future	will/shall + V1	She will sing tomorrow.
Future Cont.	will be + V-ing	She will be singing at 6 pm.

✗ COMMON MISTAKE

A Linking verb is NOT followed by an object — it is followed by a subject complement.

WRONG: She seems the problem. CORRECT: She seems worried.

🔍 EXAM TIP

Look/sound/smell/taste/feel can be both action verbs and linking verbs.

She looks tired. (Linking) | She looks at the board. (Action)

Adjective

An Adjective is a word that modifies (describes or limits) a noun or pronoun. It tells us what kind, which one, how many, or how much.

■ FORMULA / STRUCTURE

Adjective positions: Attributive (before noun) → The tall boy.

Predicative (after linking verb) → The boy is tall.

Types of Adjectives

Type	Meaning	Examples
Adjective of Quality	Describes quality/nature	honest, large, beautiful, brave
Adjective of Quantity	Indicates amount (not exact number)	some, much, little, enough, all
Adjective of Number	Indicates exact/order number	three, first, many, few, several
Demonstrative Adj.	Points to a specific noun	this, that, these, those

Type	Meaning	Examples
Possessive Adj.	Shows possession	my, your, his, her, our, their
Interrogative Adj.	Used in questions	which, what, whose + noun
Distributive Adj.	Refers to each member of a group	each, every, either, neither
Proper Adjective	Derived from proper nouns	Indian, Shakespearean, American

Degrees of Comparison

Adjectives have three degrees of comparison:

Degree	Rule	Example
Positive	Basic form; no comparison	tall, good, beautiful
Comparative	Comparing two; add -er or 'more'	taller, better, more beautiful
Superlative	Among three+; add -est or 'most'	tallest, best, most beautiful

✗ COMMON MISTAKE

WRONG: She is more taller than me. CORRECT: She is taller than me.

Double comparatives (more + -er) are a very common error. Use one, never both.

📌 EXAM TIP

Use 'the' before superlatives: She is the most intelligent student.

Use than after comparatives: He is smarter than his brother.

SECTION 5

Adverb

An Adverb is a word that modifies a verb, an adjective, or another adverb. It tells us how, when, where, how often, or to what degree.

■ FORMULA / STRUCTURE

She quickly solved the problem. (Modifies verb solved)

The answer is absolutely correct. (Modifies adjective correct)

He runs very fast. (Modifies adverb fast)

Types of Adverbs

Type	Tells Us	Examples
Adverb of Manner	How the action is done	quickly, loudly, carefully, well
Adverb of Time	When the action is done	now, today, soon, yesterday, already
Adverb of Place	Where the action is done	here, there, everywhere, outside
Adverb of Frequency	How often the action is done	always, never, often, rarely, usually
Adverb of Degree	To what extent	very, quite, almost, enough, too
Interrogative Adverb	Used to ask questions	when, where, why, how
Relative Adverb	Introduces a relative clause	where, when, why
Conjunctive Adverb	Joins two clauses	however, therefore, moreover, hence

Forming Adverbs from Adjectives

Adjective Type	Rule	Example
Most adjectives	Add -ly	quick → quickly, soft → softly
Ends in -y	Change y to i, add -ly	happy → happily, angry → angrily
Ends in -le	Change -le to -ly	gentle → gently, simple → simply
Ends in -ic	Add -ally	basic → basically, magic → magically
Irregular forms	Completely different	good → well, fast → fast, hard → hard

✗ COMMON MISTAKE

WRONG: She sings good. CORRECT: She sings well.

Good is an adjective; well is its adverb form.

📌 EXAM TIP

Some words function as both adjectives and adverbs: fast, hard, late, early, high, low.

It is a fast car. (Adj.) | She drives fast. (Adv.)

SECTION 6

Preposition

A Preposition is a word placed before a noun or pronoun to show its relationship with another word in the sentence.

■ FORMULA / STRUCTURE

A preposition always has an object (a noun/pronoun that follows it).

Preposition + Object = Prepositional Phrase

The book is on the table. (on = preposition; the table = object)

Types of Prepositions

Type	Description	Examples
Simple Preposition	Single-word prepositions	in, on, at, by, for, with, from
Compound Preposition	Formed by combining words	into, onto, within, without, upon
Phrase Preposition	A group of words acting as a prep.	in front of, because of, in spite of
Participle Prep.	Present participle used as prep.	regarding, concerning, including, following

Preposition Usage: IN / ON / AT

Preposition	Time	Place	Example
IN	in 2024, in January, in the morning	in a room, in India, in a box	She was born in Gujarat.
ON	on Monday, on 15 August	on the table, on the wall	The book is on the shelf.
AT	at 5 o'clock, at noon	at school, at the door	Meet me at the station.

X COMMON MISTAKE

WRONG: She is good in singing. CORRECT: She is good at singing.

WRONG: I am angry with the result. CORRECT: I am angry about the result.

WRONG: He is married to a doctor. ✓ (This is actually CORRECT.)

EXAM TIP

Ending a sentence with a preposition is acceptable in modern English: Who are you talking to?

SECTION 7Conjunction

A Conjunction is a word that joins words, phrases, or clauses together. Conjunctions are the glue of sentence construction.

■ FORMULA / STRUCTURE

Word + Word: bread and butter

Phrase + Phrase: in the morning or in the evening

Clause + Clause: She studied hard so she passed the exam.

Types of Conjunctions

Type	Function	Examples
Coordinating	Joins equal grammatical elements	FANBOYS: For, And, Nor, But, Or, Yet, So
Subordinating	Joins a dependent clause to main	because, although, since, when, if, unless
Correlative	Work in pairs	either...or, neither...nor, both...and, not only...but also
Conjunctive Adv.	Joins independent clauses	however, therefore, moreover, consequently

Correlative Conjunctions Pairs

Correlative Pair	Example Sentence
Either ... or	She will either pass or fail.
Neither ... nor	He neither eats nor sleeps properly.
Both ... and	Both the teacher and the student were present.
Not only ... but also	Not only is she smart but also hardworking.
Whether ... or	I don't know whether he will come or not.
Scarcely ... when	Scarcely had she left when it started raining.
No sooner ... than	No sooner did I arrive than he left.

✗ COMMON MISTAKE

WRONG: Neither Priya or Raj came. CORRECT: Neither Priya nor Raj came.

Correlative conjunctions must always be used as pairs — never mix them.

🔍 EXAM TIP

When neither...nor or either...or joins two subjects, the verb agrees with the nearer subject.

Either he or his friends are responsible.

SECTION 8

Interjection

An Interjection is a word or phrase that expresses sudden emotion or feeling. It has no grammatical connection with the rest of the sentence.

■ FORMULA / STRUCTURE

Strong emotion → followed by an exclamation mark (!): Wow! That is amazing.

Mild emotion → followed by a comma (,): Oh, I see what you mean.

Common Interjections by Emotion

Emotion	Interjections
Joy / Excitement	Hurray!, Wow!, Yay!, Bravo!, Fantastic!
Surprise	Oh!, Goodness!, Really?, Gosh!, Good heavens!
Pain / Distress	Ouch!, Ow!, Alas!, Oh no!
Approval	Bravo!, Well done!, Hear, hear!
Disapproval	Shame!, Boo!, Ugh!, Nonsense!
Greeting / Farewell	Hello!, Hi!, Hey!, Goodbye!, Farewell!
Agreement	Yes!, Indeed!, Certainly!, Absolutely!
Calling Attention	Hush!, Listen!, Attention!, Look!

■ GRAMMAR RULE

Interjections are the only Part of Speech that is grammatically independent.

They do NOT modify any word and are NOT the subject, verb, or object of any clause.

They can stand alone as a sentence: Ouch! That hurt.

✍ EXAM TIP

Do not overuse interjections in formal writing — they are primarily used in speech, dialogue, and informal communication. In exams, they may be tested through sentence identification questions.
